The UniMed Prize

UniMed have generously sponsored this £500 Prize award to encourage graduates to present their final year dissertation at an ANS Scientific meeting or Conference, and also to publish in JANS.

Presentations should be of 30 minutes duration (including time for questions). The format for publication is in each edition of JANS and ANS members can access it on the website (www.ansuk.org/members/journal/*) A Brief Guide for Authors. The JANS Editor is very happy to help with the process of tailoring the dissertation for publication. Once the article is accepted for publication the prize money will be sent to the winner.

ANS will pay travel expenses, for attendance at the meeting where the presentation is given, plus day delegate rate for the day of the presentation. Any other associated meeting expenses must be self funded.

Applications will be considered by a panel formed of ANS Council members. Applicants will be notified of the outcome via e-mail. The panel's decision is final.

Application forms can be obtained from the Hon. Secretary, Joanna Matthews (joanna.matthews@wales.nhs.uk).
